

The Metropolitan of Cracow

With great gratitude I have learnt about the intention to publish the eleventh volume of the academic periodical entitled Peregrinus Cracoviensis, dedicated to the Sanctuary of God's Mercy in the district of Łagiewniki in Cracow. This may become very useful for the Sanctuary. Its worldwide fame makes us concerned with the development aspect initiated by St. Sister Faustina and her notes to which that humble nun referred to us the Diary. Wider and wider circles respond to the 1997 appeal of the Pope, in which he called for visiting the Sanctuary.

I wish Professor Antoni Jackowski and the Editorial Staff God's blessing for their work concerning the publication. May it popularise the good news of pilgrimages and sanctuaries also among the Poles living in the English speaking countries.

Cracow, June 3, 2000.